The Columban Family

The Columban Fathers were founded in Ireland in 1916 by two graduates of Maynooth National Seminary - Father (later Bishop) Edward Galvin and Father John Blowick. Our first mission was to China.

The primary aim of the Columbans is inculturation of the Gospel in Cross Cultural environments. They engage in Reconciliation, Dialogue and building relationships between peoples of different faiths, cultures and ideologies.

At the heart of their work is the call to help people become fully human, to help establish a world of peace with justice and care for the integrity of creation in solidarity with the poor.

In order to do this effectively they strive to read the signs of the times through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, willing to take the risks of meeting the challenges that confront them.

From the earliest years the Society of St. Columban has had a strong presence in Britain, both in terms of Missionary vocations and material support.

There are Columban Houses in London, Glasgow, Solihull (Birmingham).

The Columban Sisters were founded in 1924, and have missionaries in many of the countries where the Columban Fathers are and they minister together in a various ministries. They have houses in London and Glasgow.

Columban Lay Missionaries have for many years now ministered with the Fathers and Sisters in their many Missions around the world. They are mainly young single adults (some married couples) with a deep faith and a keen sense of mission. After a training period, they are contracted with the Columban Lay missionary Programme for a minimum of three years, which is renewable for a second term and again for a longer term of six years.

Columbans now have missions in China, Chile, Fiji, Hong Kong, Japan, Korea, Peru, Pakistan, the Philippines and Taiwan, UK, Ireland, Australia/ New Zealand and the USA. The Columbans are international, having English, Scottish, Irish, Australian, New Zealand, American, Korean, Fijian, Chilean Japanese Philippino and Peruvian members.

The Columbans enlist support through the publication eight or nine times a year of a pictorial family magazine called the FAR EAST. The magazine has a circulation of about seventy thousand and draws articles and features from the missionaries working at home and abroad.

Grant us o Lord a spirit of generosity so that our service is not measured by a calculating mind but by a loving heart

No act of kindness, no matter how small,
is ever wasted.

*God. fovea the world so much.
that fie gave his on{y son,*

The only place where success comes before work is in a dictionary.

Real leaders are ordinary people with extraordinary determination.

When a man is wrapped up in himself he makes a pretty small package.
